Public Law 94–236 94th Congress

An Act

Mar. 19, 1976 [H.R. 11700]

Relating to the application of certain provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to specified transactions by certain public employee retirement systems created by the State of New York or any of its political subdivisions.

New York. Public employee retirement systems.

26 USC 401.

26 USC 503.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) any pension plan or trust which, on December 5, 1975, was a party to the amended and restated agreement of November 26, 1975, set forth on pages S21308, S21309, and S21310 of the Congressional Record published on such date, and any trust forming a part of such a plan, shall not be considered to fail to satisfy the requirements of section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and shall not be considered to have engaged in a prohibited transaction described in section 503(b) of such Code, merely because such plan or trust does any or all of the following:

(1) (A) enters into such agreement or agrees to an amendment of such agreement;

(B) forebears from any act prohibited by such agreement;
(C) acquires or holds any obligation the acquisition or holding of which is provided for by such agreement;

(D) makes any election provided for by such agreement;

(E) executes a waiver of any requirement of such agreement; (F) after the expiration of such agreement, holds any obligation acquired or held pursuant to such agreement; or

(G) performs any other act provided for by such agreement; (2) on or after August 20, 1975, and before January 1, 1979, considers, for purposes of determining investments to be made by the plan or trust, the extent to which such investments will—

(A) maintain the ability of the city of New York—
 (i) to make future contributions to the plan or trust,

and

(ii) to satisfy its future obligations to pay pension and retirement benefits to members and beneficiaries of such plan or trust, and

 (B) protect the sources of funds to provide retirement benefits for members and beneficiaries of the plan or trust; or
 (3) after December 31, 1978, considers, for purposes of determining whether to retain investments held on December 31, 1978, the factors enumerated in paragraph (2).

For purposes of paragraph (1), the acquisition or holding of any obligation of the Municipal Assistance Corporation for the city of New York on or after August 20, 1975, and before November 26, 1975, shall be considered an acquisition or holding provided for by such agreement.

(b) In the case of-

(1) any amendment to the agreement described in subsection (a) which relates to the application of the factors set forth in subsection (a) to the requirements of section 401(a) or 503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and which is adopted after December 5, 1975, and

(2) any waiver of any requirement of the agreement by a plan Waiver.

Report to

Secretary of the or trust after December 5, 1975, such amendment or waiver shall take effect for purposes of subsection (a) on the date on which a copy of such amendment or waiver is submitted directly to the Secretary of the Treasury; except that, if the Secretary determines, not later than 30 days after such date of submission (or, if later, the date of the enactment of this Act) that the taking effect of such amendment or waiver for purposes of subsection (a) is inconsistent with the considerations set forth in subsection (a) (2), such amendment or waiver shall not be deemed to have been effective for any period for purposes of subsection (a). No amendment to the agreement which has the effect of extending the expiration date of the agreement to a date later than December 31, 1978, shall take effect for purposes of subsection (a).

(c) The trustees of each pension plan or trust described in subsection (a) shall furnish a copy of the annual report filed by such plan or trust with the New York State Insurance Department for each fiscal year of the plan or trust beginning after June 30, 1975, and ending with the first fiscal year in which there are no obligations with respect to which subsection (a) applies, to the Secretary of the Treasury not later than 30 days after the date such report is filed with the New York State Insurance Department, and shall furnish such additional reports and other information as the Secretary of the Treasury may reasonably require. A copy of each such report shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Treasury to the chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives and the chairman of the Committee on Finance of the Senate.

(d) The Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate is authorized to Regulations. prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(e) This Act shall be effective on and after August 20, 1975.

Effective date.

Approved March 19, 1976.
